Public Order Policing – A review of practices in the Garda Síochána (2019)*

3	The Inspectorate recommends that the Garda Síochána Public Order Incident Command Model must be activated whenever specialist resources or tactics are being considered.	A	Not implemented -action ongoing.
4A	The Inspectorate recommends that the remit of the Garda Síochána Public Order Steering Group be expanded to include the internal monitoring of use of force. In addition to use of force reports the group should consider wider information including Garda Síochána Ombudsman Commission findings, civil claims and injury on duty reports. The Garda Síochána should publish use of force data on its external website as well as all procedures and guidelines relating to public order and use of force, with only operationally sensitive material being excluded.	A	The recommendation is implemented.
4B	The Inspectorate recommends that the external oversight of garda use of force trends should be incorporated into the performance monitoring activities of the Policing Authority and any subsequent oversight body.	A	The recommendation is implemented.
5	The Inspectorate recommends that the Garda Síochána use the evidence base of a current Strategic Threat and Risk Assessment to determine its public order operating model, capacity, capability and contingency.	A	The recommendation is implemented.
6	The Inspectorate recommends that the Garda Síochána develop a standardised, transparent selection process for the National Public Order Unit. This process should be overseen by the Human Resource and People	AM	The recommendation is implemented.

	Development Department to ensure consistency, fairness and equality of opportunity. Selection should be contingent on the member having up-to-date refresher training in use of force and having signed the Code of Ethics. Unsuccessful candidates should receive appropriate feedback.
7	The Inspectorate recommends the adoption of a specific strategy to develop greater female representation in public order policing.	A	The recommendation is implemented.
8	The Inspectorate recommends that the National Public Order Steering Group should determine the number and distribution of Garda Síochána public order strategic/operational commanders on the basis of the Strategic Threat and Risk Assessment. The need to enhance the diversity of public order policing through more visible female role models should also be a strategic objective of the group.	A	Not implemented -action ongoing
9	The Inspectorate recommends a mandatory recertification process for all public order commanders that ensures that they maintain operational competence, professional knowledge and a current understanding of relevant human rights issues.	A	Not implemented -action ongoing
10	The Inspectorate recommends that staff in the new regional control rooms and the DMR Command and Control Centre have the capacity and capability to manage all spontaneous incidents, such as critical firearms and public order incidents.	A	Not implemented -action ongoing
